

TELFORD HOMES WINS LARGE DEVELOPER AWARD AT RESI AWARDS 2018

The evening of Wednesday 16th May saw Telford Homes take home the award for Large Developer at this year's 2018 RESI Awards.

Organised by Property Week, the highly regarded annual RESI Awards celebrate the work of the people and companies within the development sector over the past 12 months. Hosted at London's Grosvenor House Hotel, developers, investors, agents, landlords, housing associations and local authorities all gathered together to give praise to the best and brightest in the industry.

Telford Homes was an award winner in the category for Large Developer after being shortlisted alongside seven other major developers in the sector.

Jon Di-Stefano, CEO at Telford Homes, commented: "We are incredibly proud of every single member of the Telford Homes team, each of whom have contributed immensely to making the company the best that it can be, creating homes and places of the upmost quality and delivering nothing but the highest standard of service to our customers."
